About the Project

This project is a eight days youth exchange, during the project young people will experience various non - formal methods and approaches: such as tactical urbanism, case studying, project development etc.

Within the project, participants learn concrete strategies for action: how they can optimize their immediate surroundings, e.g. street, (school) yard, sports or playground, bike paths etc. in their cities with low-cost measures and make the public be aware of existing problems.

The aims of the ptoject

- to give young people the opportunity to reflect on their current situation in their home cities/countries and the role of youth in their development to develop social, intercultural and project-related skills of the participants.
- to provide young people with space to think about common European values (democracy, security, peace, tolerance and social cohesion).
- to give the participants the opportunity to realize their own urban project ideas and also to strengthen their participation.

CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

- Age: 18 30 y/o (the group leader with no age limit)
- Willingness to work together with all participants

Open Space

This project is the Youth Exchange and Youth Excharge FOR youth and BY youth. So, each national team will have the opportunity to share your knowledge/skills/experiences, anything that you'd want to add to the content from yourself. The programm is driven by your contributions, let 's make it count!

For that you'll have 45 minutes within the programm, you can plan work shop/discussion/small presentation, any format you can think of.

Things to help you plan:

Topic:

Materials:

Optimal group size:

Outcome:

We invite you to think of it in advance. It would be nice to connect the topic to the frames of the program but it is not must.
